San Diego and Falls Blasts in Electricity Control Bill

The bill, which would give the Federal Power Commission authority to regulate the electric industry, has been introduced in the House of Representatives.

THE HOUSE "FEDERAL POWER" BILL

The bill, which would give the Federal Power Commission authority to regulate the electric industry, has been introduced in the House of Representatives. It is the first step in a long process of reorganizing the electric industry. The bill would give the commission authority to regulate the electric industry, including the construction of new power plants and the operation of existing ones. It would also give the commission authority to regulate the rates of electric utilities. The bill is expected to pass the House in the near future.
