

LIFE OF KING

The first of these is the fact that the government has been unable to maintain a consistent policy towards the economy. It has been a series of ad hoc measures, rather than a coherent strategy. This has led to a loss of confidence in the government and a consequent increase in inflation. The second problem is the fact that the government has been unable to control the money supply. It has been a series of increases, rather than a controlled expansion.
 This has led to a
 loss of confidence in the government and a
 consequent increase in inflation. The third
 the government has been unable to control the balance of payments.
 It has been a series of deficits, rather than a balanced budget.
 This has led to a
 inflation.
