Dear Barbara:

On looking through my files, I find I only have one xeroxed copy of the notes from Joan Daves regarding the contract. So would you be kind and pass this along to Jack Goellner together with the copy of the letter I sent to him in September, and which unfortunately never arrived.

Regarding the artist, Antonio Frasconi, I believe I forgot to tell you in our telephone conversation that he also expressed interest in doing illustrations for the book of selected prose in translation if it were desired. We can talk about this.

My very warm regards to you all,

Sincerely,

Doris Dana
