To HOWARD CLINE

August 7, 1969

Dear Howard:

I was finally able to talk with Antonio Frasconi's wife by telephone. He is teaching in California, but will return to Connecticut on September 2nd.

When I told her briefly the reason for my call, she sounded instantly warm and enthusiastic about the project. I know that Frasconi is personally a great admirer of Gabriela.

Meantime, I shall drop him a note, and will be in touch with him directly after his return.

Our meeting with the Johns Hopkins group I found delightful, and I feel sure that any of the secondary problems can be worked out with ease.

Warm regards,
