Mr. J. G. Goellner
Editorial Director
The Johns Hopkins Press
Baltimore, Maryland

Dear Mr. Goellner:

Your letter of July 18th with enclosures was much appreciated. I, too, enjoyed our meeting, and look forward with great pleasure to the project we discussed.

As far as I can see, it is clear sailing regarding a contract for the publication of a hardback edition of Gabriela Mistral's works in English translation. However, I do feel there are certain problems regarding secondary rights which we did not discuss in depth at our meeting.

For this reason I delayed answering your letter until my literary agent, Miss Joan Daves, returned from Europe. I had the opportunity to discuss these problems with her today, and she will send me her recommendations regarding these secondary rights within the next few days. I will send them on to you immediately with my thoughts on these matters.

I am most enthusiastic about publishing Gabriela's translated poetry with the Johns Hopkins Press, and look forward to seeing you in Baltimore in the near future.

With my best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

Doris Dana
