Dear Sister Rose,

Thank you for your letter of October 17th, and I trust the enclosed is the authorization you required.

I have been so involved in work and things get rather confusing, as you can imagine. I have meant to ask you if you have any materials that were to be returned to me? I remember lending you a book that you requested, but if you have returned it to me let me know. Also, I can't seem to find in my files, "El sentido religioso de la vida" and I'm wondering if I gave you my own copy. Would you be so kind and drop me a note about this as it will save me a lot of needless searching.

Good luck in your enterprise.

With my love and prayers,

Doris Dana
