Dear Ms. Dana:

On May 10, 1976 I sent you a letter c/o Joan Daves, requesting permission to reprint a selection from "Where Shall We Dance?" by Gabriela Mistral in the Student's and Teacher's Editions of our forthcoming LANGUAGE FOR DAILY USE, Level Silver (seventh-grade volume).

I have not yet heard from you, and am wondering whether or not my letter was forwarded to you by the Joan Daves Agency. Our deadline is now quite near, and it is important that we learn whether or not we may reprint "Where Shall We Dance?"

In case you never did receive my previous letter, let me give you some information about our book. The Student's Edition for LDU Silver will be about 512 pages, clothbound, and will be distributed throughout the United States and Canada. It will be sold at the proposed wholesale school price of $5.40 (no discounts will be applied).

Our Teacher's Edition will be about 640 pages, paperbound, and will be distributed throughout the U.S. and Canada free of charge to teachers using the Student's Edition with their classes.

In granting your permission, we would appreciate your including permission for transcription into Braille and/or large type. Also, please indicate the correct form of acknowledgment you wish us to use. I am enclosing a copy of the selection we wish to use.

I look forward to hearing from you at your earliest possible convenience. Thank you.

Yours sincerely,

Paula Valentine
