Dear Doris:

It was awfully good to talk with you again after so long. Gary said there would be no problem about getting your consignment of books shipped off today by special handling. You should have them in a few days.

You asked about sales. The statements sent to Joan Daves show that in calendar year 1972 we sold 258 copies of the casebound edition and 708 of the paperback. Sales to date are 1,702 of the casebound edition and 2,910 of the paperback. In addition, we have given away 192 free copies of the casebound edition and 257 copies of the paperback.

Please let me know how the festivities go. And by all means make a visit to Johns Hopkins a "must" for this Summer.

Sincerely,

J. G. Goellner
