Dear Doris:

You'll have to pardon me for writing you in care of Joan Daves, but I believe you are on the move so much that I wouldn't trust any longer the most recent address we have for you in our files.

Our business office has asked me to remind you of the amount of $255.22 you have owed us for books purchased a couple of years ago (our invoice No. 20854, dated April 1973). We can, if you wish, deduct this amount from future royalty earnings, but we'd like to have your approval to do so. Actually, you might find it preferable to send us your check for the proper amount and thereby leave your royalties untouched. This is up to you, but please do let me know your wishes.

I'm afraid I've rather lost track of your activities in recent times, although I'm sure they are as frenetic as ever. It would be awfully good to be brought up to date.

Sincerely,

J. C. Goellner
Director
