Dear Mr. Flores,

Thank you for sending us the translations of some Gabriela Mistral poems. The translations are with Doris Dana who will, I believe, be in touch with you directly.

I should like to take up with you now the business end of the matter. We note that the poems in question are to be published in your anthology as an Anchor Book. The fee offered for the use of the poems as listed is under the minimum which we have established for Mistral poems. We should like to set a fee of $ 75.-- for each 10,000 copies printed and hope that this will be agreeable to you.

We are enclosing our usual permission form with the request that you return one countersigned copy to us.

Sincerely yours, encl.

P.S.: Will you kindly fill in the enclosed permission letter all pertinent information regarding your anthology and also attach a listing of all the poems you are going to use, stating their original publishers.
