CAEDMON

April 15, 1964

Dear Mrs. Holdridge,

I have before me your letter of June 6, 1963 pertaining to the proposed use of Gabriela Mistral's poem LA MANCA in a Houghton Mifflin anthology of Spanish poems. Your original letter came in while I was in Europe, but soon after my return I sent it on to Miss Doris Dana for her information. Through some oversight the entire matter was filed and I am afraid forgotten until just recently.

I should be interested in knowing whether the proposed recording was ever made and/or released. If LA MANCA was included in it, we shall have to come to some arrangement regarding the permission fee.

Miss Dana has told me about the recordings which you made in 1953 or 1954 of Gabriela Mistral reading her own poems. I understand that you recorded a great deal of material at that time, and Miss Dana remembers that the quality of the recordings was extremely high. I have at present proposals from various people in the Spanish language area for publication and distribution of recordings of Miss Mistral's poetry, and I wonder whether some arrangement for the use of some of your recordings could not be made. Beyond this, one should perhaps think of ways and means of releasing these recordings which, with the ever increasing interest in Gabriela Mistral, should find a very receptive audience all over the world.

I shall look forward to hearing from you.

Yours,

Joan Daves/rm
