Gentlemen:

I understand that your company has published a collected volume of prose of Gabriela Mistral and that you continue to publish "Lagar" and "Desolacion," although that contract long ago expired. Mr. Benjamin Claro of Claro & Cio tells me that he has been in contact with you, and that this action on your part was due to a misunderstanding.

I would like to have in writing as soon as possible the details concerning all books which you have and are publishing. Regarding the volume of prose, I must have a list of contents. It would be easier if you sent me air mail a copy of all books by Gabriela Mistral you have issued to date. Then, as the appointed Executrix of her estate and as Literary Manager, I can have a mutually satisfactory contract drawn up.

I will also need a statement of all monies which you hold for Gabriela's estate and ask that you send me a check for this amount in dollars. The check should be written to the order of "ESTATE OF GABRIELA MISTRAL."

It is too bad that this misunderstanding about the publications occurred. Please let me hear from you as soon as possible and send me the required material.

Very truly yours,

Doris Dana
Executrix of the Estate of
Gabriela Mistral
