Miss Doris Dana
204 East 20 St.
New York, N. Y.

Dear Miss Dana:

On April 29 we wrote you a letter which, we presume, never reached you since we have not heard from you. Hoping that this time we have the right address, we are enclosing a copy of our former letter to you. The letter, for all we know, may be lying dead in some old mail box.

We would greatly appreciate your answer to this letter at your earliest convenience.

Yours respectfully,

Ismael Rodríguez Bou
Permanent Secretary
