Dear Doris:

In my work as Cultural Affairs Counselor in the Mexican Embassy, I play a surprising number of roles. Yesterday I served as a detective and was successful in finding an address in Europe where Editorial Porrúa might reach you. Your very pleasant tenant in Pound Ridge gave it to me, and I have already sent it to Mexico.

As you will see by the enclosed copy of the letter signed by señor José Antonio Pérez Porrúa, several efforts have been made to get in touch with you to no avail.

I happen to own a copy of the first edition of Gabriela's Lecturas para Mujeres and treasure it so that I hope a new edition will soon be available to permit many, many to enjoy a similar privilege.

With best wishes, I am

Cordially yours,

Concha Romero James
Sr. Concha Romero James,
