Castano
Dear Senor Castillo:

I have held your letter of July 15th for Miss Doris Dana's return from her recent trip to Central and South America. I have now had a chance to discuss with her the information contained in your letter, and I am pleased to report that all of it is acceptable to her.

I am enclosing two copies of a contract which, while it is based on the publication contracts which I normally set up, does I hope include all of the items which we discussed as well as those which are normally part of any contract. Please consider this as a draft agreement and feel free to suggest any additions or adjustments.

I have taken note of your information regarding the 12% tax which must be deducted from Miss Dana's royalties before any transfer of money is made. I presume that this particular tax pertains only to monies earned in Colombia; if you distribute a considerable number of records in Mexico and Spain, would it be possible to make separate accountings and direct payments for those?

I shall look forward to hearing from you.

Yours,

Joan Daves/rm
