Dear Sra. Luz Matte de Boetsch,

I have been in Europe for almost six months collecting prose works of Gabriela Mistral for publication. During the past few weeks, I have been busy catching up with correspondence, sorting out piles of papers, etc., and have just found a letter from you dated last January 27th which had been mislaid and consequently unanswered. I am very sorry about this.

In your letter you ask permission to use two poems of Gabriela's, OBSESSITO and EN DONDE TEJEMOS LA RONDA?, in the Silabario Matte. Of course, I am most happy to authorize the use of these poems, and earnestly hope that they were not excluded because of the loss of your letter. Please let me hear from you.

With all best wishes for the Christmas Season,

Doris Dana
