Dear Doris,

My note to you of January 28 complaining that we didn't know where you were crossed yours which came in this morning. Just so you have a sign of life, we'll send you this greeting to Lisbon where it should catch you before your long voyage home.

I'm sorry about the miserable weather you've been having; I was in the water in Sint Maarten at least 3 or 4 times a day; so there!

So glad you are making progress on your work. THE ELEPHANT AND HIS SECRET and the four poems received today prove that it is of first-rate quality, too.

Gigi and we will have a lot to tell you upon your return. Meanwhile, much love to both of you.

Yours,
Joan
