Dear Isabel:

How are you all? It's so long since we've seen you. Margit and I want to know when both of you and Mia are coming to live with us...!

I'm off to Canada tomorrow for 10 days on business re. my mother's property, and am stopping off in Boston to make a TV poetry broadcast - "Beyond Earth, Beyond Heaven" - Channel 5. By the time I get back, I hope that this ghastly rain will let up and that, in a burst of sunshine, you all will come out and visit with us.

In the meantime, enclosed is a copy of my "The Elephant and His Secret" story, plus Spanish translation. Isabel, can I ask you - at your leisure - to take a look at this translation, and make any suggestions, corrections, or whatever - as we had discussed some time ago. I would appreciate it so very much! There is no one who has an eye like yours for the subtleties and proprieties of the Spanish language.

Hang on to these papers until I get back around July 10th. I'll phone you then and we can discuss this -- or also maybe then you can come out and visit us - we hope!

Love from all of us to all of you - and Gigi sends Doggie-Kisses....
