To Whom It May Concern:

It gives me a great deal of pleasure to write this letter of recommendation for my friend, and colleague, Julia Blanco.

Over the past several years, I have worked closely with her, and have never ceased to be amazed at the boundless energy and dedication she has displayed in her activities. Whenever I have had to call upon her for counsel or aid she has done so in the unselfish manner that has become the trademark of her reputation.

Miss Blanco from my personal knowledge of her activities has made effective contributions in her work with the Hispanic community of New York, and a great asset to our own organization in helping to establish closer ties with that community.

She is a scholar and an emotionally stable woman of high quality, and a person that I can recommend without reservation.

Sincerely yours,

Daniel J. Mugan
