Dearest Emma:

I returned about ten days ago from Chile where I spent a few months. I had hoped to stop in Mexico on the way back but, knowing that Esther de Caceres had been ill, I went instead to Montivedo.

In the meantime, I am waiting to find out if I am to receive a Ford Foundation Grant to help me above all in the collection of the Prose works of Gabriela's as well as translations.

Did you go to California? I saw Jack and Barbara Harrison several times while I was in Chile, and as always we spoke of you and Daniel. The children have grown so! Please send me the clipping about the statue of Gabriela in Provence. I will be here, so send it to Hack Green Road, Pound Ridge, New York.

I should know very soon about this Grant, and will write you then giving you more details about my plans.
