Dear Mme. Mistral:

I have asked each contributor to THE WORLD'S BEST to provide me with a small commentary on his or her selections for the volume; as to why he or she chose their pieces, how they came to write them, what their selections mean in their body of work, or some observations on their point of view in regard to their writing.

The book is now going to press and, since we are using INEJIMA, LA HUELLA, and POEMA DEL NIÑO, I would very much appreciate one or two hundred words from you to serve as a kind of window opening on to the poems.

I am very grateful for all of your cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

Whit Burnett
