Dear George,

I am very glad that the deal regarding Gabriela Mistral's article worked out happily for everybody.

Am enclosing biographical data, so that you can make the selection you want. Also am sending two photographs of her -- which were the best I could find. A friend who just came down from Mexico City says she has some beautiful pictures of Gabriela and will send them to me when she returns to the City -- in about a week's time. So if you are not too happy about the two pictures I am sending, let me know, and I will send on the others when I receive them. After you are through with them, Gabriela would like to have the pictures returned since she has very few here.

I don't think I even need to bring up the following point -- but I just want to check on it; namely, that Margaret Thompson be given credit in the magazine for the translation. Incidentally, do you know when it will be published? How many off-sheets is Gabriela entitled to receive?

Thanks for everything, and you'll be hearing from me soon.

Sincerely,

Doris Dana
