Dear Mrs. Mousseau:

Thank you for your telegram which I received this morning. Both Gabriela and I are delighted!

If you have on hand any comments on your work, along the line of those made by Americo Castro in his preface to your translations of Jorge Guillen's poetry, I would appreciate your sending them to me as soon as you can (to my New York address). This is in the interest of having added ~~ammunition~~ ammunition. Not that I think it will be needed: ~~your translations~~ the translations themselves give you all the credit you need. However, everything helps -- especially since most editors have little or no concept of the original work. Also I would appreciate your telling me what other works you have translated.

Please send this information to me care of Margaret Thompson, 345 East 68th Street, New York City. (Pancho's sister)

I am asking this now since I will be in New York
