Dear Miss Dana:

Enclosed please find the check of $15 made out to Miss Lisztal, and two copies of the agreement between us. Would you rather I sign both copies and return one of them to me.

I want to thank you so much for your kind offices on my behalf. Will you please assure Miss Lisztal your gratitude to her for granting me the permission to use the poem. I hope, when she hears the music, she will not think my composition unworthy of the beautiful poem which it was set.

As soon as the translation is ready I shall send it to you with the music for suggestions, corrections, etc.

Sincerely yours,
Joseph Goodman
