Dear Mr. Ungar,

It has come to my attention that your volume SPANISH-AMERICAN LITERATURE IN TRANSLATION contains translations of three Gabriele Mistral poems. As agent for the Mistral Estate I find no record of having given permission for this use. Apart from the question of a permission fee there is also the problem of the author's executrix having to give approval to translations used, even if such translations have previously appeared in print. I shall discuss the matter with Miss Dana after she has returned from a trip abroad and will then be again in touch.

Sincerely,

Joan Daves/bg
