ATLAS MAGAZINE
1180 Avenue of The Americas
New York, New York

Dear Sir:

It is with great misgivings that I, a Charter Subscriber to ATLAS, read the announcement in your November issue of the change in the Editorial staff.

The last time that Mr. Muir was publisher-editor of Atlas the magazine underwent a drastic change for the worse. And this despite the fact that the talented and experienced staff that had run ATLAS from the first was still there to counteract some of the vulgarization that had been instituted with Mr. Muir's take-over.

The new staff with its distressing background of mass publications convinces me that the course of vulgarization will be speeded up, and the deterioration be complete with the next issue. If you have any doubts at all please read the World Press comment in the November issue and compare it with those Mr. Quincy Howe prepared for so many years. Will you therefore cancel my subscription AT ONCE, and refund the unexpired portion of my subscription money.

Yours truly,

Doris Dana
