Dear Miss Dana:

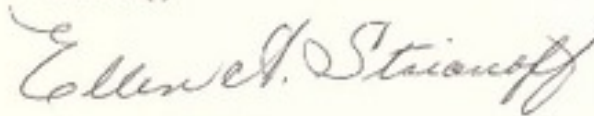

We were tremendously impressed by Gabriela Mistral's poems, and would like very much to buy one of them for MADemoISELLE. As I am not sure if or when this letter will reach you, I am holding the poems here until you return to the States. Please do let me know when you are back.

The press of time is no longer upon us as we will not be running the poem in December. As it turned out, the Travel Department's Chilean feature will be in November, a month we were already scheduled for, so there was no possibility of tying-in. Upon buying the poem, we will add it to our inventory and publish it as soon as possible.

I look forward to hearing from you.

With all good wishes.

Sincerely,

Ellen A. Stoianoff
