Dear Miss Dana;

Per our telephone conversation of yesterday, we are seeking the rights to use some of the recordings of Gabriela Mistral on file at the Library of Congress, Washington, D.C.

Our program, "Enfoque: Las Americas" is a television documentary series produced by the U. S. Information Agency. The purpose of the series is to promote cooperation among Latin American Nations in resolving common social and political problems.

One step toward this goal is to produce a program dealing with the culture of Latin America and pointing out many individuals who have contributed significantly to its development. Gabriela Mistral is such an individual.

With your permission, we would like to use some of the recorded readings by Gabriela Mistral on file at the Library of Congress.

Per our conversation, there will be no payment involved and use of the recordings is limited to this "Enfoque: Las Americas" program only.

By your signature at the bottom of this letter, this agreement will become valid.

Please retain the attached copy for your files.

We sincerely appreciate your cooperation in allowing us to use the recordings of Gabriela Mistral and can be assured they will be utilized in a manner befitting such an honored individual.

Sincerely,

Ashley Hawken
Producer
"Enfoque: Las Americas"
