Dear Barbara,

Sorry I didn't get to answer this before I left.
Yes, you can go ahead with permission for this text of A LA MUJER MEXICANA. I'll be glad to see it in the McGraw-Hill book.

You asked about where it was first published. I'm almost sure it was published for the first time in a Mexican newspaper back around 1924. Can this wait until I come home at end of March? Since the copyright passed to me, I imagine McGraw-Hill should copyright in my name??

You'd adore this island! Why aren't you all down here????
Warm best wishes,
Doris Dana
