Dear Doris:

Herewith draft of a Langston Hughes' translation of LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD. He wonders what you think about including it in the Collected Poems. Since you were supposed to talk to him anyway, I hope you will get in touch with him soon so that the contact is preserved and Hughes has the feeling that we care. In case you have mislaid the address, it is 20 East 127th Street, New York 35, New York.

Mr. Bernard Perry of Indiana University Press needs the Nobel Prize Citation and I have told him that it will come to him from you. Will you take care, please? For your information, I am enclosing a copy of my recent letter to Mr. Perry to which, however, I have had no answer as yet.

I am off for Europe on Wednesday and the way things look now, there won't be much of a chance for me to see you before. As you know, Marie is well informed about everything pertaining to our doings; call her whenever anything comes up.

Love,

As ever,

Joan
