Dear Mr. Perry:

Your letter of April 4th addressed to Miss Doris Dana was forwarded to us as agents for the Estate of Gabriela Mistral and Miss Dana.

Miss Dana is on an extended trip through Latin America on behalf of the US State Department and will not return until August. In the meantime I shall bring your letter to her attention and I know she will be pleased by your comments regarding her translation of two Mistral poems.

Cordially yours,

JD-be

Doris, there seems little point in saying now that you probably would not want to associate yourself with the use of translations. This will have time until you return.
