Dear Miss Dana:

Thank you for your letter of November 5, 1966, with the information about the Gabriela Mistral material which may be found in the Library of Congress and about which I have written to the Library of Congress. Thank you too for the information about your forthcoming book, Poema de Chile, which I am ordering from Schert in New York City.

The idea of an article about Gabriela Mistral's literary friendships has been attracting me. I am asking then whether you would go along with such an idea and furnish me details about the Thomas Mann articles that you and Gabriela wrote, and other pertinent information that you would care to share.

If and when the article develops, I would of course be glad to send my work to you for approval. I do hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely yours,

Edna L. Furness
