Dear Doris:

You will be pleased to know that Francisco Aguilera has completed a draft of his introductory matter for the Gabriela book. I think it is very nice, and shortly, when he gives us the final version, I will send you a copy.

I am raising another matter here. The Music Division <sup>and</sup> the Hispanic Foundation in the Library of Congress plan to issue a long-play Gabriela Mistral recording, which will contain 17 or 18 poems that she recorded for our Archive of Hispanic Literature on Tape. We expect also to issue a booklet with the record, containing the text of the poems.

I would like your formal permission, as Gabriela Mistral's literary executor, to permit the Library to issue this recording. Would you expect some flat fee for this permission?

We all look forward with great anticipation to seeing the translated poems. With continuing warm regards, I remain

Cordially,

Howard
