Dear Doris:

You will recall that when you last visited the Library on July 16, 1969 you left with us five reels of wire recordings of Gabriel's Mistral. I am now returning, under separate cover, the five reels of wire records and am forwarding a set of three tape recordings of the material recorded on these wires.

We have not inventoried these recorded materials. When you have an opportunity to listen to these recordings, I would appreciate it if you would provide us with a resume of the contents.

The Hispanic Foundation has another set of these three tapes, as well as a master set in the Recording Laboratory.

Howard and Pancho send their best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

Donald F. Weston
