Dear Miss Dana:

Thank you for your letter of October 15, 1965. I treasure it as an answer to prayer, for I have been trying to find you for over a year. When Aguilar in Madrid told me that I would have to contact Joan Daves, I did not realize that the contact would lead me to you.

Of course, I knew that you are Gabriela Mistral's Literary Excutrix and heir. You must be a great woman yourself, to have won her friendship and shared her confidence. The more I read Gabriela's works, the more I wish I could meet you and have a chat with you who knew her so intimately. Last year, I wrote to you at the Hempstead address, but the letter was returned by the Post Office.

You say that you are leaving for Chile within the next two or three weeks. Would it be possible to see you before you leave? How soon can I obtain a copy of the Chilean publication?

This year, I am teaching in our college on Monday and Tuesday only. The remainder of the week, I am free to do research and writing. During this time, I can be reached at Our Lady of Good Counsel Convent, 2342 Andrews Ave., Bronx, N.Y., LU 4-6567.

Thank you for your permission to cite quotations from Gabriela's works. I shall be very happy to have you read the dissertation, for no one better than you is prepared to tell me whether or not I am correctly interpreting this tremendous woman.

May God bless you and your noble work.

Very sincerely yours,

Sister Rose Aquin, O.P.
