Sister Rose Aquin, O. P.
Dominican College of Blauvelt
Western Highway, Blauvelt
New York

My dear Sister Rose:

Thank you for your lovely letter of November 1st, the feast of All Saints.

I, too, enjoyed our delightful afternoon together, and I wish it could have been for a longer time.

I am enclosing a copy of my letter to Mr. Robert Hill of the New York Public Library, authorizing you to see the Gabriela Mistral microfilm collection.

Under separate cover I am sending you the photocopy of Guilleberg's address at the Nobel Academy. Also, a copy of Gabriela's address to the Academy. I am also sending you a copy of Boletin which contains Gabriela's article that I spoke of, "El Sentido Religioso de la Vida". Please return this copy of Boletin to me when I return from Chile.

Dear Sister Rose, forgive me that this note is so brief. My address in Chile is:
c/o Dr. Luis Muñoz Parra
Antonio Bello 118
Santiago de Chile.

I hope when I return that I shall have many more opportunities of talking with you. I wish you could go to Chile with me too!

God bless you, and I thank you for your prayers.

With warm regards,

— Doris Dana —
