Dear Doris,

Purposely we have put off writing to you in the first moments of the great loss we are all suffering and you in particular. Our minds have been constantly with you following all the incidents of the momentous end and praying that it should come free of suffering for her and of agony for you; - God was merciful to both you and her.

Words cannot tell the comfort it has been to us to see her in such loving and capable hands; a just recompence when the supreme end came to a life of longing for that which is unattainable on this earth.
