Dear Doris - (I hope you don't mind my using our first name!)

The enclosed are two essays from Victoria's Testimonios devoted to Gabriela, their friendship and correspondence. I am sorry about the underlinings, etc., which I hope you can ignore. I have translated the one about the Nobel Prize and hope to include it in my biography-anthology. In the light of our conversation, it is interesting to see how Victoria refers, in the other essay written in 1957, to Gabriela's communication with Peron. By the way, if it is not too much trouble, I would be grateful if you would send me a copy of the letter to Peron in which she asks him to "intervene." I did not get a chance to copy the text of that letter while I was there, and I would like to see it before I leave.

I will discuss the possibility of a letter-exchange with Victoria and will let you know the outcome. Hopefully she will also want to talk about other aspects of their friendship; and when I return, I would enjoy continuing our conversation.

Thank you again for a most interesting and enjoyable afternoon.

With best wishes,

Doris
