Dearest Doris:

Yesterday Pierre called me up saying: "Turn on the radio, there is an excellent program about Gabriela Mistral". So, we put on the radio and I, no, we listened to Gabriela through you. It was absolutely beautiful. Jean listened in his room, I listened in mine and my Mother downstairs... and throughout the whole house your voice was coming forth with Gabriela's message.

Doris, you were perfect, both as a translator and an interpreter. Gabriela would have been so proud of you. You were direct, strong and gentle, simple and sincere. It was a very moving reading. You are a real artist. I am sorry the Puerto Rican artist did not possess your style,
