OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

November 22, 1954

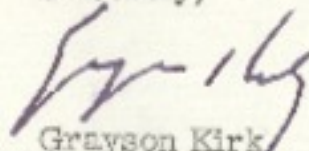

The Hon. Miss Gabriela Mistral
c/o Miss Doris Dana
15 Spruce Street
Roslyn Harbor, L. I., N. Y.

Dear Miss Mistral:

Thank you for your very kind letter of November 13. We were touched and pleased that you were willing to make the effort, in spite of your delicate health, to participate in our Bicentennial conference on "Responsible Freedom in the Americas" and to attend the functions in connection with the final Convocation of our two-hundredth year. It was indeed a privilege to award an honorary Doctorate to someone who has contributed so greatly to our culture, and we only hope that your activities in this regard have not been injurious to your health.

With every good wish, I am

Sincerely,

Grayson Kirk
President
