My dear Miss Mistral:

Thank you very much indeed for your thoughtful letter of December the 20th, and for the very fine suggestions which it includes. It was good of you to spend the time and the thought to give me so much information which I do not have.

I hope that if you return to the eastern part of the United States you will let me know. It will be a great pleasure for me to meet you. I am ashamed to say that I cannot speak your language, but perhaps you are able to speak mine, and at any rate we would find means of communication.

Yours with kindest regards,

Pearl S. Buck
