Re: Mistral

Dear Doris:

There are plans afoot for the publication of a collection of poems of Mistral in France. We are in touch with Gallimard who propose to bring out such an edition.

Apparently, two previously published editions were made:

1. Librairie Stock published a small volume under the title DESOLATION.
2. Nagel published a collection poems - the title of which we do not have.

I should like to take the position that since these publishers have never sent out royalty statements or payments, the rights held by them have re-verted to the proprietors. It would be safer, however, to have a look at the existing contracts and I wonder if you can lay your hands on them?

Incidentally, what is happening with the will? All matters are hanging fire until this is cleared and I should appreciate early information.

Yours,

Joan Daves per JB

P. S. We are sending our last copy of TEHULA out today; if you have additional ones, we should very much like to have a couple. Thank you.
