Re: Gabriela Mistral

Dear Doris,

Thank you for sending the various bits of correspondence. I assume that there were no answers, from your side, to Miss Pape's letter, the cable from the German publishers Maier & Neumann, and the letter from the German Embassy. I believe this leaves us all in the clear, provided the author's signature, which I presume is a legal one, is not fixed to any other contract but the one we made out for the Luchterhand Verlag.

Instead of transferring the advance due to my bank account, the German publishers sent us an International Money Order, made out to Gabriela Mistral. I am sending you the three money orders, in the total amount of $238.16. Just so all this can go via our books, I would ask you to please have the author endorse these and return them to us. We will then deposit them in the regular way in our special account and send you our check for the advance due, minus our commission.

Best regards,

As ever,

Joan
