Dear Miss Dana:

Re: GABRIELA MISTRAL

One of the composers associated with this company is interested in setting poems by Gabriela Mistral for voice and piano, or voice with orchestral accompaniment. The poems are taken from the volumes POEMS FOR MOTETS and CRADLE SONGS, and the specific titles are:

HE KISSED ME
TO MY HUSBAND
SWEETNESS
DANN
CRADLE SONG
(and possibly) CLOSE TO ME

The poems would be set in English translation originally, but might well be used in other languages at a later date. We are anxious, therefore, to clear world rights for the use of these verses.

We would be grateful, therefore, if you would advise us who controls world rights in these titles. Should these be available through you, please let us know the conditions under which they can be so used. We would need the right to print the texts in connection with the music, and of course, the right to sing the songs in public and to record same.

We look forward to hearing from you in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

BOOSEY & HAWKES INC.
