Attention: Miss Maribel James, Copyright Department

Dear Miss James:

Thank you for your letter of April 21st about the use of a poem by Gabriela Mistral in the publication of a composition by Gottfried von Hines.

Any translation of the poem must be approved by the estate. If you will send us a copy of the English translation you wish to use and in future those in any other language, we will pass them along to the estate.

In addition, we would ask a fee of $20.- for the use of this poem in the published composition for English-language use, and a like fee for each additional language. We would be granting you only the right of publication with the music and no rights of public performance or recording.

Sincerely yours,

Marie F. Rodell
