Dear Miss Dana:

In my letter of July 23 I sent you four poems: "Wall," "Giving Water," "Bread," and "Wind". I enclose in this letter: "Absence," "Memory of the Divine," and "Destillo."

I should appreciate your letting me know at your earliest convenience if we have permission to publish these. I have your first letter with the terms.

Is anybody collecting the prose writings of Gabriela? Will Gabriela remain in Naples for the winter?

Very sincerely yours,

Margaret Bates
