Dear Miss Daves:

Enclosed I am returning to you the forms which you kindly sent me in connection with my book on Gabriela Mistral. I hope I gave all the information that was necessary.

? As I explained to Miss Dana who, by the way, has a copy of the manuscript, my book is made up of three parts: a biographical study, a critical essay on Gabriela Mistral's poetry, and a brief anthology. The book is one of a series published by Editorial Universitaria of Buenos Aires.

why? There is no profit involved on my part. On my contract with Editorial Universitaria a payment to me of thirty thousand Argentine pesos was stipulated, which at the present rate of exchange amounts to about two hundred dollars. If I am not mistaken, these dollars cannot be taken out of the country due to government regulations. In the preparation of the manuscript -typing and buying photographs that illustrate the text- I have spent close to three hundred dollars. I mention these facts to show you that this is strictly a labor of love.

22 Also, I would like to mention that, according to a statement that Miss Dana gave to the Chilean publication FLASH, she has kindly given me permission to use Gabriela's poems.

Joan ??

Sincerely yours,

Fernando Alegria
