Dear Mrs. Jenkins:

I have many pleasant memories of the fine party I enjoyed at your home.

My situation at present is this. I have bought a house in Duarte, in which there are three tenants, two upstairs and one family downstairs, the daughter of the former owner. I bought the house with the promise of the owner that her daughter would move in one month's time. It is now over a month, and she has not yet moved.

I have petitioned the Office of Price Administration for an eviction, and the Consul General in Los Angeles, Sr. Predena, has also sent them a letter, asking them to permit me to evict the tenants. I would therefore ask you to do me the favor of also writing for me to the Office of Price Administration here.

Thank you for your kind offer to be of help.

Sincerely yours,

Gabriela Mistral
