Mr. Lynn White,
President of Mills College
Oakland, California

Dear President White:

I regretted very deeply that I have not been able to pay you a visit this past week. But an arduous duty brought me to San Francisco, and my health, after seven months of constant travel, is not good. And since I do not wish to visit your lovely college unless I may do so with leisure and sufficient strength, I shall have to postpone this great pleasure until my next trip to San Francisco.

Professor Torres Riosoco very kindly conveyed to me your wish that I be your College's guest for a week, a very great and touching honor for me, I assure you. From the bottom of my heart I thank you for this courtesy, which I appreciate especially much for its coming from you, whose personal and pedagogic achievements are well known to me.

As for the special honors which your college chose to render me, I, unfortunately, knew nothing about them. I have just recently returned from New York, Washington, D.C. and Chicago and my correspondence is tied up in the Consulate in Los Angeles.

May I convey to you, Mr. President, my very sincerest regards and offer you the humble friendship of an old South American sister professor.

Very truly yours,

Gabriela Mistral
