Dear Doris:

Well, those connections were close. When I saw your train pull in and pull out so quickly I wondered if gm made it. After the train pulled out I kept watching the staircase expecting you and gm to emerge, but no, apparently you were on your way. What did gm think of her trip? I enjoyed it very much and thank goodness that terrible edge I was wearing on Sunday wore off and I fell into bed last night at 9 P.M. with many groans as my overworked muscles decided finally to relax. I spent two whole days pounding the streets of New York. Besides the clothing I bought, skirts, blouses, sweaters, I was able to latch on to a very good Ampex recorder at a very reasonable price and the man who sold it to me was the most literate of all the electronic engineers I have spoken too. Let's hope everything works out.

Did the refrigerator boxes arrive yet? You know you also can use them upside down for cake. The big one is for bread--keep the bread in its original wrapper too. These I find to be the most satisfactory because the lid fits on easily and since it's transparent, you always know what's inside.

I sent you Wallace Fowlie's JACOB'S NIGHT (my copy) so that you could read his article on Maritain. gm was also interested in it.

I forgot to take the negatives of those three photos you took of gm and myself at the beach and at Cold Spring Harbor.

I am enclosing a letter to you and an envelope addressed to Miss Daves so that you can send it on to her--there is a copy for you to keep... also a print of El Greco's EL MARTIRIO DE SAN MAURICIO, your name day... Sept. 22.

Well, now I have to get over to the University to batir el cobre.

How was crazy Mrs.... party?

Muchas gracias - dice yo Dulce y yo

Marg.
